Hello Mum & Dad,

We believe it is important that you know exactly what is going on behind the scenes. We are proud of what we do and in turn we want you to be proud of your decision to bring your little monkeys here.

We make everything in our kitchen, as a result we know exactly what goes into every dish we serve. All our meat is locally sourced, follows exceptional welfare standards and is, we believe up there with the best of what is available. Our fish is delivered fresh each day, meaning that, for example, the fish in our goujons was probably swimming in UK seas just last night - pretty cool huh!

This philosophy is embedded in all our food, from starters to desserts.

Thank you for choosing to support our little independent restaurant.
